Kilgary Mountain

Ireland, ca. 1870

2. The shining golden coins did look so bright and jolly,
I took 'em with me home and gave 'em to my Molly;
she promised and she vowed that she never would deceive me,
but the devil's in the women and they never can be easy.

3. When I was awakened between six and seven,
the guards were all around me in numbers odd and even;
I flew my pistols, but alas, I was mistaken,
for Molly'd drawn my pistols and a prisoner I was taken.

4. They put me in jail without judge or writin',
for robbing Colonel Pepper in Kilgary Mountain, but they didn't take my fists so I knocked the sentry down,
and bid a fond farewell to the jail in Slaigo town.

5. Now, some take delight in fishin' and bowlin',
and others take delight in their carriages a-rollin',
but I take delight in the juice of the barley,
and courtin' pretty girls in the mornin' so early.

Music engraving by LilyPond 2.12.3—www.lilypond.org